POT LUCK

The pot luck was again a success. Esther Marchant and her committe did a great job and the buffet table was laden with delectable food brought by the members of LHS. Ken Brown gave a most interesting talk about his days in early Lafayette. Sybil Wilkinson, one of the descendants of Elam Brown, was an honored guest.

Chris Schreiber,LHS president for the past two years, was presented with an inscribed tray in appreciation of her years of devotion and hard work to the Society.

Ted Craig, Joan Merryman, Esther Marchant, and Martha Gridley were elected to serve as 3 term board members.

La Fayette..a Pictorial History

Formal dedication of the Society's forthcoming history was made to Fern Powell Davis at our potluck in April in a surprise ceremony. She was presented with a pre-publication segment, including the dedication page, by Author Sandy Kimball and members got their first glimpse of the book. Due off the press around the first of June, "La Fayette..a Pictorial History" is a 64 page, soft cover volume with approximately 85 photos from the Society's extensive collection. Members of the Society will each be given a free copy of the book when it is available. A special committe headed by Jean Baker will handle sales and promotion of the book which will go on sale at a number of local outlets at $4.95 each plus tax. Additional information on the book's availability will be announced next month. Members serving on the committe with Jean are: Joan Hobbs, Jane Sherman, Lynette Swobe, Sandy Levitt, and Pat McRae.

EHHIBIT

Currently on display at the Lafayette Federal Savings and Loan is a Bicentennial Exhibit called "200 Years Ago". Exhibited are three prints, one each of George Washington Crossing the Delaware, The Battle of Bunker Hill, and The Spirit of '76. There are also period figures with uniforms of the American Revolution on display. The latter are the courtesy of Mrs. Joseph Gregory. The exhibit was arranged by Angela Broadhead and Bronwen Heur.
